President's Report

LULAC Trivia Night: Don't forget about next month's Trivia Night scheduled for Saturday 5 Oct with competition starting at 6:30 pm. Cost is $10.00 per player with a maximum of 8 players per table. You may sign up as a team or individually. Event will include raffles, 50/50 drawings and cash prizes to the 1st, 2nd & 3rd place teams. You may bring your own snacks and treats but please no outside beverages. All proceeds go to the LULAC scholarship program. Please help us get the word out to your families, friends and co-workers. This will be our last major event for the year and we are looking for a strong showing (see attached).

Jefferson Edison Stepping Stones Program: The Council recently held a late night bingo this month after the normal Friday night session. Approx. 90 people stayed to play the second bingo. The purpose of this bingo was to raise funds for the Jefferson Edison Stepping Stones after School Program. There are approx. 22 student enrolled in the program. There are currently 6 families with Latinos in the program for a total of 7 students. Registration fee is $25.00 per student with a weekly fee of $5.00 per week charged. We'd like to thank our bingo callers Sheila, Randy Kay, Shirley, as well as Decker, Ron, Joe, Toni, Randy, Aaliyah, Tony, Jill and Lisa for all their hard work putting on the additional session. These are the same folks who put on our weekly Friday Night Bingo; week after week, month after month, year after year. Again thank you.

2013 R.I. Memorial Day Parade: Members of the Rock Island American Legion Post 200 Color Guard led off the recent Labor Day Parade. The Color Guard displayed the National colors of the MIA/POW, the Post 200 colors and all the service flags; to include Army, USMC, Navy, Air Force & US Coast Guard. LULAC maintains a strong connection with local area Veteran Groups with several of our members belonging to Rock Island American Legion Post 200.

NAACP Freedom Fund Banquet: Members of the Council attended this month's Banquet at St. Ambrose University. The keynote speaker was Kameron Middlebrooks, NAACP Region IV Director. Awards included Past Presidents awards. Recipients included Thomas Kelly, Reverend Rogers Kirk & Archie Silvan. The Outstanding Supporter Award was presented to Davenport attorney Michael Liebbe. Attendees donated funds to establish a St. Ambrose University NAACP Chapter. LULAC has been in discussions with the St. Ambrose Diversity Office to establish a LULAC Young Adult Collegiate Council at the University, as well. LULAC was also recognized as being a supporter of the local Chapter of the Davenport NAACP.

Viva Quad Cites Scholarship Awards Banquet: LULAC Council 10 Executive Board representatives attended the recent awards banquet held at the Riverfront Center in Bettendorf. A total of 7 scholarships were awarded to QC area students. The banquet was well attended and included representatives from various local colleges also attended. LULAC was recognized as a key supporter of the Viva QC organization. LULAC thinks it is paramount to collaborate with other Latino organizations regarding education.

East Moline Fiesta Parade: Event has been rescheduled for Sunday, 29 September. Parade will begin at 1:00 pm in downtown East Moline with the fiesta starting right after and will include food, music, dancing and entertainment. The Moline LULAC will be ruining the pop concession with the help of Council 10. Please join us.

Youth Council: The Youth Council is making plans to attend the Latino Youth Leadership Development Summit at the University of Iowa. The Latino Youth Summit is part of the 15th Annual "Strengthening and Valuing Latino/a Communities in Iowa" conference to be held September 27, 2013 in Iowa City, Iowa. The youth summit attracts 200 high school students from around the state. The Iowa Latino Conference is coordinated by The University of Iowa School of Social Work and the Center for Diversity & Enrichment.

Thank You: On behalf of the membership we would like to thank the Fiesta committee for putting on another successful Event. The Fiesta was well attended and the food, entertainment and music were just great. Thank you to Diane Soliz, Fiesta Chair, Toni Robertson, Maria Anderson, Tory Reyes, Rick and Melinda Jimenez.

Also a big thank you to Queen Contest Coordinator Rita Vargas for another wonderful job with the young ladies this year, as well as working the raffle.

Congratulations to LULAC Man of the Year Tim Garcia and LULAC Women of the Year Janet Weaver and thank you Natalie Zarowny from CBS- 4 WHBF for being our Fiesta MC this year.
